

I could honestly write a book about this experience.

Doru first came to me as a client. I filmed for him personally, and he later trusted me to build a full production team for several high-end networking events that he hosted and managed.
At first, I was a little apprehensive because I didn't fully understand just how knowledgeable and experienced he was. That changed when he began consulting me on my own business. What Doru and his team have done for me is something money simply cannot buy.

Doru has become more than a client; he is now a trusted ally and someone I will confidently recommend and speak highly of moving forward. Anyone searching for a true all-in-one consulting firm should not waste their time looking anywhere else. Those who have not taken advantage of this firm's connections, knowledge, and experience have truly missed an incredible opportunity.

This has been an amazing experience from beginning to end. I am extremely pleased and grateful for the coaching, guidance, and professional advice I received on every level. Doru handled everything by the book, with honesty, integrity, and strong ethics.
Team Onyx Elite has earned a loyal customer and a friend for life.
Thank you, Doru and the entire Team Onyx Elite family. Stay tuned for what's coming next!

Luis Rivera

L.A Films Production LLC