VALOR WEALTH GROUP

Working with Doru and the Onyx Elite team has been one of the most supportive and transformative experiences of my career. When I set out to launch my firm, I knew I needed more than branding — I needed a team who could bring my vision to life with excellence, intention, and genuine care. Onyx Elite became that partner in every way.

From the beginning, they helped me ground my ideas and shape a brand that felt aligned, elevated, and true to the impact I want to create. Their work was not only strategic but beautifully executed. The pitch deck they built for my firm was vibrant, high-end, and positioned me with the kind of clarity and sophistication that immediately stands out to investors and top-tier clients. The website they developed captured my voice and mission with elegance, and the brand logos they designed embodied the essence of my identity and the future I'm building.

Their talent extends far beyond design. The team even helped build the complete workflow systems in GoHighLevel, from funnels to automations, giving me structure, consistency, and the operational backbone every founder needs. Every deliverable was created with intention, precision, and a level of excellence that exceeded my expectations.

What impressed me even more was the humanity behind all the strategy. Doru leads with a rare blend of brilliance, empathy, and unwavering support. He coached me through both the strategic decisions and the emotional landscape of stepping into new leadership. He never let me stay stuck, never let me lose sight of my potential, and always helped me move through challenges with clarity and confidence.

The entire Onyx Elite team opened doors I could not have accessed alone, exclusive investor rooms, elevated client networks, and high-value opportunities that have transformed the trajectory of my business. Their belief in my work helped me step into these spaces with assurance and purpose. I am launching a firm I am deeply proud of, and I can say with full honesty that this chapter would not look the same without the dedication, creativity, and genuine care Onyx Elite poured into every step of the process.

If you're done waiting, guessing, or trying to piece your success strategy together alone, you're going to want to schedule your session with Onyx Elite today. It may be the single most pivotal step you take toward your next level.
